Our Pitcher Album

It started off as a bet and ended with us racing across the south, collecting the best, most potent and unique cocktails we could find. We collected recipes and stories along the way. These pitchers have over 5oz of alcohol and are $15.00

THE HURRICANE

Light and dark rum in a tropical whirlwind of juices. Don't batten down the hatches for this storm – let it on in! Also available by the glass!

STUMPY'S MORPHINE

A blend of vodka and melon liqueur are sure to ease the pain. Thanks to our tour guide at Gatorland in Daytona Beach for helping out with the name.

ALABAMA SLAMMER

A Southern Comfort, Amaretto and vodka classic...thanks to Deputy Lyle T. Razarbak who helped us find the "time" to think about this one. If the sign says 30 mph in Mobile, they really mean it.

PUSH UP

A favorite blend of vodka, vanilla schnapps and OJ. We started with a full tank of gas, some pork rinds, boiled peanuts and Good Humor push ups and headed toward Kentucky.

KENTUCKY COOLER

Any y'all ever spike a watermelon with vodka? A reminder of the easy life when all you needed was a couple of inner tubes and a moonshine melon.

ROOT BEER FLOAT

We improved this childhood favorite by adding Uncle Jesse's vanilla and root beer schnapps. He loves that frosty mug state – so will you!

FUZZY NAVEL IN OVERALLS

Our take on the fuzzy navel. A bartender in Memphis helped us with this name and then offered to show us his. Elvis has left the building!

MISSISSIPPI MOLASSES

Southern Comfort, Kahlua and milk. Billy Joe thought molasses was only used for hot cakes!

Chozen Frozen

MARGARITA

The age-old margarita made with premium tequila. Kick up your margarita with Patron Silver & a splash of Patron Citronage!

STRAWBERRY RITA

The classic margarita made with Sauza tequila and strawberries

PEACH RITA A South of the Border drink with some help from South of the Mason Dixon

STRAWBERRY DAIQUIRI

PINK LEMONADE

Straight from Mississippi we showed 'lil Mary Sue how to turn her lemonade stand into a real money maker, just by addin' vodka.

SWAMP WATER

Rum, melon liqueur and low country juices! While down in the bayou an 'ol boy named Bobby Booshay gave us a swig of his "Swamp Water." As they say, "When in the bayou, do as the bayou'eens." At least I think they said that.

TEXAS MARGARITA

The only way to drink a margarita is with premium gold tequila and Grand Marnier! That's what the man with the rodeo championship belt told us. Nice guy, awfully ugly belt. Also available by the glass!

SANGRIA

Handmade Sangria with fresh fruit. We got this one from the old Mexican woman we helped smuggle across the border. Also available by the glass!

TAMPICO TWO STEP

A refreshing blend of vodka, schnapps and juices to cool the body and light up the soul. Ole!

TOASTED ALLMAN BROTHERS

On our way home we stopped in Macon, GA to pay our respects. We named this drink of Kahlua, Amaretto and vanilla schnapps in their honor and sang "Ramblin' Man" all the way home.

'57 CHEVY WITH GA TAGS

In honor of the car that took us across the south, we mixed up a blend of vodka, rum, Southern Comfort and fruit juices. Actually, it was a '68 VW bus with SC plates, but that didn't have the same ring.

GOOMBAY SMASH

The crew discovered this one while cruising through the Bahamas last winter break. We brought this as our Bohemian souvenir to share with y'all. Coconut, light and dark rum with pineapple and OJ.

Steamer Seafood was founded in 1991 by Kentucky native Dale Augenstein. Our beverage menu started off pretty simple but with his burning quest for traveling (sometimes he takes us along), Steamer now has more than 250 beers from 39 different countries, some kick-ass drinks and some of our favorite wines. Sit back, relax and grab a cold one. Cheers! Go Tops!
