The Classics

Manhattan 10

The Manhattan was the most famous cocktail in the world shortly after it was invented in New York City's Manhattan Club, sometime around 1880. This tasty libation is crafted by combining Bourbon, sweet vermouth and bitters with ice and stirred until well chilled then strained straight up into a martini glass, it's garnished with a red cherry.

John Collins 10

This variation of the on the gin-based Tom Collins takes it's name from "John Barleycorn" a traditional nickname for Bourbon. Johnny C is Bourbon, sweet and sour mix, simple syrup shaken and poured over ice and club soda and garnished with a lemon wedge and a bourbon soaked Cherry.

Whiskey Sour 10

In a glass filled with ice, we pour of Bourbon, sweet and sour mix, simple syrup, orange juice shaken and then garnished with an orange wheel and cherry.

Sazerac 13

Be transported to the Big Easy with this N'Orleans Classic. Absinthe rinsed glass, sugar cube, Peychaud & Angostura bitters, Bourbon and garnished with lemon twist.

Craft Bourbon Cocktails to Delight the Senses

Bourbonball 14

This Kentucky local favorite is an amazing mixture of Bourbon, Tuaca (A tempting blend of Italian brandy, Mediterranean citrus & vanilla spice) and dark crème de cacao that is shaken over ice and strained into a martini glass and garnished with a strawberry.

Desert Oasis 12

This tasty favorite will give you flashbacks of tropical adventures. We craft this by combining Bourbon, Chakra Crown Vodka (Lychee, Coconut and Jasmine), Tuaca, brown sugar syrup and pineapple juice. Shaken over ice and then strained into a tall glass and garnished with pineapple and orange.
